These things just make me save!

Bill: What's that? One of those War Savings Certificates?

Joe: Mean to say you're not buying any?

Bill: Nope! Never gave it any thought.

Joe: Doesn't need much thought, Bill. Five dollars for four dollars is pretty simple arithmetic, isn't it?

Bill: Yes, but it's the business of buying 'em that bothers me.

Joe: Why, that's simpler still, Bill. Our pay office takes two bucks a week out of my pay and I get two certificates every month from Ottawa—two $5 certificates for $8.

Bill: Gosh! That's easy.

Joe: It's not only easy, it's a bargain, with victory thrown in.

The help of every Canadian is needed for Victory. In these days of war the thoughtless, selfish spender is a traitor to our war effort. A reduction in personal spending is now a vital necessity to relieve the pressure for goods, to enable more and more labour and materials to be diverted to winning the war. The all-out effort, which Canada must make, demands this self-denial of each of us. Invest in War Savings Certificates the dollars you don't need to spend. After Victory, they come back to you with interest. Spend less now so that you can spend more then.

SPEND LESS—TO BUY MORE WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES

E. V. Whiting, relief officer at Prince George, will arrive in Prince Rupert next week from the interior to assume duties as unemployment insurance administrator here, also taking charge of the local office of the Employment Service of Canada in succession to James M. Campbell who has been superannuated. Mr. Whiting's arrival in Prince Rupert was delayed owing to a difficulty over the salary which was to be paid him.
