Reconsecration to Democracy Marks 3rd Year of War

Reconsecration

O Lord of Hosis, in this time of our reconsceration to Thy service and in defence of the light brought into this world by Thy beloved Son, we turn to Thee in prayer, We pray for our fighting men on land, on the sea and in the air that they may be imbued with courage to persevere and strength to vanquish the dark forces which now seek to rule this earth. We pray for endurance for all those who, in any way, are engaged in this great conflict, and, for our peoples, understanding of the truth. We pray for mercy for the stricken, consolation for the bereaved and eternal rest for those who, having blazed the path, have been gathered to Thine arms.

These things we ask O Lord, so that in the fullness of time the dread conflict may cease, the right triumph, and our children be brought up to serve Thee and to do those things which are of good renown, to know and to spread the Christian light. Amen.

Week Grace

For the courage of our fighting men and the devotion of those who stand behind them: for our continued freedom and for those blessings of our unscarred earth, we give thanks in this week of reconsecration to The Lord of Hosts, who is the only defender of the right.

TWELVE million Canadians—still I free—stand girded for their third year of war to preserve that freedom.

September 10, 1939, those twelve millions, unhesitatingly and of their own free will, elected to resist the challenge of unprovoked Nazi aggresssors, and thus vowed never to lay aside the sword until the world truly shall be safe for all peoples, little as well as big, minorities as well as majorities. September 10, 1941, ends two years of Canada at war. And the government of Canada has proclaimed the week of September 10-17 as "a week of reconsecration of the Canadian people to the democratic cause against Nazi tyranny . . . in national honor for Domestic business, export trade, those who, on land, on the sea and in the air, are defenders of our country, and in proud memory for those valiant hearts who have gone out from among us in the most precious of all sacrifices for our common freedom."

Two years of war! When the mailed fist of ambition-crazed German overlords struck down Poland only twentyfour months ago, Canada was a counterpart of that "nation of shopkeepers" scorned a century since by the first of the European dictators to meet his Waterloo.

the old "live and let live" comprised the backdrop of the Canadian scene. The national eyed no others' territory, harbored no furtive designs against others' way of life. Canadians were devotees to the North American formula of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Of war spirit there was no sign. Canadian armament was insignificant; planned that way because it was purely for defence... And Canadian factories were tooled more for ploughshares than for swords.

But when Prussian Junkerdom

marched once more, this time under the hated Swastika of ruthless Nazis, Canada tossed away her peacetime ease and dreams, closed her ranks, and stood proudly with other nations of the British Commonwealth. In two years, the Dominion has set a mark in voluntary war effort nigh unsurpassed in the history of peaceful, democratic nations. Let us look at the record.

For, of their own accord, Canadians went into this war. They did so, inspired by deep-bred hatred of barbarism, incessant warmongering, recurrent brutalities, and the senseless despotism apparently innate in the vaunted German "master race." They decided to do their bit in putting a stop to all this war fever, which has infected other nations accepting Hitler as their friend. So, when the decision had to be taken between perilous peace and unwanted war, Canadians braced themselves for the sacrifice, consecrated themselves and their all to sweeping carnage from the

At the dawn of the third year of war, all Canadians are invited by their government to reconsecrate themselves "to the democratic cause against Nazi tyranny."
