Norwegian Parliamentarian and Newspaperman Warns Against What Nazi Victory Would Mean.

Urging a more serious realization of the dangers involved in the spread of Hitlerism and the advisability of those nations which had not already come under its cruel heel, imposing conditions of slavery and intense hardship upon countries which had enjoyed the highest measure of liberty and democratic privileges for their privileges for their peoples, Konrad Knudsen, member of Norwegian Parliament and newspapereditor of Honefoss, spoke in English last night before a well-attended meeting in the Oddfellows' Hall. Mr. Knudsen gave a graphic picture of the deplorable conditions of oppression and dire hardship which have fallen upon Norway under the rule of Nazi Germany. He told of the brutal methods of unrelenting Nazi blitzkreig warfare which he himself had personally experienced. Come what might, however, true Norwegians, both at home and abroad, would stay in the war until their! country was once again freed from the yoke of the Hun.

Last night's meeting was presided over by Oscar Sather, president of the local Sons of Norway Lodge. John Dybhavn, Norwegian vice-counsul, introduced the speaker and, at the close of the meeting, spoke again, expressing appreciation of the visit of Mr. Knudsen and urging that Canadians could best insure themselves against a real threat by purchasing to the fullest extent of their ability war savings certificates Rev. J. H. Myrwang, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, also spoke in acknowledgement of Mr. Knudsen's visit, joining in the exhortation of a great appreciation of the menace that faced the world Planes Downed from Hitlerism.

Peter Lien presided at the piano to accompany the singing of "O BERLIN, Oct. 17: - A Berlin Canada" and the Norwegian naannouncement last night said that tional anthem at the opening of twenty British planes had been the meeting and "God Save the brought down while Germany had King" at the close. He also playlost none in an air battle over the ed selections during the taking up of a collection.

A pleasant touch was added by the presence of usherettes in Nor- ments in connection wit PLEASE OR YOUR NOW MADE IN CANADA wegian national costume, these Knudsen's visit. being the Misses Ethel Knudsen, A collection taken at last night Astrid Peterson, Violet Wick and meeting totalled $36.12 which, at Magnhild Storseth.
