Ewart Hetherington Too Much For Army Men in Play at United Services Hut

Last evening in the United Services Hut Ewart Hetherington the Welfare Association downed all opposition of the Active Service Corps to win the ping pong crown. Hetherington was playing on invitation and surprised all the spectators and players, including himself, by trouncing Gosnell in the third round two straight games, 21-9, 21-13.

Green and McKinnon of the Navy batted out the semi-finals next point, 20-19, it looked as if family arrived in the city on the with McKinnon winning over Green in two nice games, 21-17, 21-16.

The play in the finals held all the watchers spellbound. McKinnon and Hetherington fought tooth and nail for each point. At times the cross play would run into minutes while each of the boys watched for a chance to smash home the telling shot. The score was 21-19 for > decision. But it was the last game morning. that nearly drove the spectators wild. At the start Hetherington ran up an early lead of seven points. McKinnon finally got himhis flashy opponent.
