Plenty Of Candidates - - -

It looks as if there will be plenty of candidates offer- Preece, won by Mrs. W. Brass. ing in some of the constituencies at the fall election. In Vancouver Centre there will be C.C.F. candidates and also donated by Mrs. William Thain, won not pass the dozen allowed for what Harold Pritchett, a well known labor man, is announced. That should make a keen contest because the C.C.F. is ed for British refugees was in Old Jim Garrett, 78, who owns well organized and Pritchett is well known among labor charge of Miss Dolly Smith and what must have been a radical demen. It will be a little difficult for the C.C.F. to have so Mrs. Frank Ellison. It included: strong a candidate running on much the same ticket.

Difficult To Keep Track - - -

It is difficult to keep track of the various contracts dresses, 3; women's slips, 4. let and the buildings being erected in Prince Rupert. The housing contract has been let and work on it must be completed within three months. Several government con- ies) 3 tracts have been let recently, one for thirteen thousand Proceeds of tea will be devoted to fact that he eats grass with all his dollars and another for eight thousand. Tenders are ask- the purchase of new materials for ed for a boom defence depot in addition to a boom depot the work of the sewing club for already arranged for. There is also work proceeding at refugees. Seal Cove and a building being erected by the engineers in the city. A new engine house is to be built on the site of the old one at the C.N.R. yards. There are also a number of private contracts being carried out or being let, all tending to make the place busy. All this tends to dislocate s. business and bring about abnormal conditions.

LEGION TEA

Showing of Articles for Bombed British Refugees Was Surprise

The many ladies who called during yesterday afternoon to lend their patronage and support to the effort of Women's Auxiliary Canadian Legion in aid of bombed refugee work were surprised and interested in the amount of garments on display fashioned by the nimble Touring Club's "Veteran Cyclists" fingers of the Legion Sewing Club, under capable convenorship of Miss Dolly Smith.

With Mrs. Wm. Rothwell, as president, receiving, the affair was an unqualified success and the Legion Hall presented an attractive ap-i pearance with summer flowers centring the tables and adorning the lace-covered pouring table where Mrs. M. M. Lamb and Mrs. James Laurie presided.

Veteran Riders of Britain Make Hard Riding Trek Into Chiltern Hills in 12 Hours

By D. E. BURRITT Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Aug. 16: (P)—The sun the "assistant marshal" bellowed "here they come!"

And around bend in the came a vanguard o he strangest contingent of mechanical cavalry ever seen, even in these days of weird uniforms and grotesque equipment.

It was the finish of the Cycling Ride" for members more than 50 years old and who had just com pleted 100 miles into the Chilter Hills, in 12 hours, 10 of which were actually spent in pedalling.

They coasted down the little in cline to the clubhouse, three abreas and then checked in to qualify for the "certificate" granted to thos who finished the long grind, hel every three years if the old me are still intrested enough to oil th brake and pump the tires of their varied vehicles.

Variety Clothes

The crowd that trickled in pro vided a revelation in what Pop use to wear when he rode his bicycle a a young bloke; everything from overalls to oversized shorts mad mostly of white duck and corduroy. in It's admitted that to have formfitting clothes is not English but it did seem these old fellows exaggerated things a bit.

They ranged from 50 to 78 in For Vancouver-Cake, donated by Mrs. Oden, won age and there were fathers, grandfathers and even great grandfath-Ham, Donated by Burns Co., won ers. In fact the only one not in the event was Father Time who was Chicken, donated by Mrs. Jack not considered essential as the "boys" were not concerned with the Box of home grown vegetables, passing hours as long as they did one old chap called "the ride of the parture from bicycle design in the the first to reach the "local" for his evening pint.

He East Grass

Too, there was J. R. B. Branson, a fellow who has not yet reached even 70 but who has been telling the Ministry of Food he owes his meals—with vegetables, with fruit and even without. He has been urging people to eat grass to counter the loss of nourishment of things! not now imported.

Few of them spoke as they pulled up at the club, many of them very Mrs. F. E. Parsons, Lea Baker, W. slowly. But others stopped only . McDonald, A. E. MacMillan, M. long enough at the "local" for a started off on another 15-mile jaunt

Sixty-nine of them started, and after twice stopping for lunch or beer, about 40 returned. The log showed "accidents": none; injuries: many cases of sunburn; entrants missing; one. "He turned up later."
