David Smith, Local High School Boy, Victim of Sad Skating Accident Yesterday.

David Smith, seventeen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Smith. Fourth Avenue East, was the victim of a skating tragedy yesterday afternoon when he went through thin ice at Prudhomme Lake and was drowned. Sergeant the body of the lad was still unrecovered.

David Smith was one of a party of three boys who went skating to ceeded immediately. the lake. The others were Edward Dawes and Ernest Burnip. After getting on the ice, Burnip returned to shore to fix a skate. Smith and Dawes proceeded along. Near the stream which forms the outlet of the lake and where the current is somewhat faster, the two boys went through the ice. Dawes was able to save himself by scrambling back on the thicker ice and stretching out. The ice continued to break off, however, as Smith endeavoured to climb up to safety and, despite the efforts of himself and Dawes, he was unable to keep up and finally disappeared.
