Daylight Saving . . .

A number of communities in British Columbia are considering the possibility of returning to standard time after the first of the month. Particularly this applies to communities in the Fraser Valley. They say that the system does not help the war effort and it is otherwise very objectionable, especially to children attending school. In Alberni, a sawmill town, there is also a movement to return to standard time.

If daylight saving helps the war effort, we are strongly in favor of it. If it does not help the war effort, we are vigorously opposed to it. It is really up to the shipbuilders to decide. We still have standard time on the railway, the telegraph service and some of the steamships. Some radio comes on according to standard times. We are not campaigning to get a change made in the time schedule but, if the war work is not benefited by it, we suggest it would be a great thing to revert to the standard system. If the shipyard schedule is best the way it is, there is little more to be said. All depends upon it.

England Has Done Something . . .

We have been taken to task for using the word England when we should have used Britain. We humbly apologize for this lapse. In France they say Angleterre and in most countries of Europe they use the equivalent to English for the people of Britain. Often in the United States the same expression is used. But that does not excuse those of us who know better. We know that it is blasphemy to use the word English when we should say British. If we wish to include the north of Ireland or Wales we scarcely know what to say but perhaps there is a word. British are primarily people who live in Great Britain but also people who live in Canada and are citizens of that country. Also people who have taken out their papers in Papua, regardless of color, are British.

When caught up by one of the sticklers for proper nomenclature recently a tired Englishman remarked: "You must admit that England has done something in this war. I read of Highlanders making a name for themselves. I read of the wonderful Anzacs, of the spectacular Canadians, of the Indian troops that are continually distinguishing themselves. Yet there are more English regiments taking part than all others put together but they do seem to be worthy of mention. They probably did something but their deeds must not be whispered. Happily in this war some foolish man wrote a song "There'll Always be an England" to remind the world that there really is an England as part of the Empire."

GYRO SPORT IS CLOSING

Tournament of Table Tennis—And Shuffleboard Held Last Night

Gyro summer sports drew to a close last evening with the staging of a monster tournament of table tennis and shuffleboard. During the evening prizes were presented to the members of the winning Westview softball and soccer team by Cecil Shantz, supervisor of playgrounds.

In the girls' table tennis finals Rose Marie Hartwig coasted to an easy 21 to 8 win over Lorraine Youngman while, in their shuffleboard finals, Bessie Lee defeated Madeleine Youngman in the singles. In the doubles Lorraine Youngman teamed with Theresa Wong to defeat Bessie Lee and Rose Marie Hartwig.

The boys' table tennis produced some very exciting games with Gus Kadonaga providing the big upset of the evening by ousting favored Frank Hingston in the second round and going on to win the finals from Don Hartwig 21-16, 21-16. With ten entrants in this tournament Don had to beat Lorne Reid, Sid Youngman and Rupert Holkestad before gaining the final slot. In the doubles Frank Hingston and Gus Kadonaga were too good for Rupert Holkestad and Tom Reid, winning 21-11.

No less than fourteen boys entered the shuffleboard tournament and when the smoke had cleared, the finalists were found to be Neil Sheppard and Don Hartwig. Neil won the play-off quite handily but Don came back strongly in the doubles when, teamed with brother Alan, he defeated Frank Hingston and Gus Kadonaga.

Hard luck boy of the night was Frank James, pre-tournament favorite to cop the table tennis singles, who had the misfortune to take sick yesterday and thus miss the fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLean who are leaving Stewart to reside in Victoria, were passengers going south on the Catala yesterday afternoon.

SPORT CHAT

A much-discussed sport event which is attracting considerable attention will take place tonight at the Acropolis Hill grounds when Royal Canadian Air Force, which copped the Civic Centre Carnival Cup last week, and Grotto, season's champions in the Senior Softball League, will meet to settle the issue of just which is the best team in Prince Rupert. There is a good deal of discussion on that question and both sides are so confident and enthusiastic that the challenge has resulted in a sizeable wager having been made. As announced yesterday the in-seam ball will be used and there will be sixty-foot bases. Cy Kellett will be on the mound for Grotto with Scoop Bury behind the bat and Sonny Stiles at first. Others on the team: George Howe, Benny Windle, Sonny Beynon, Mike Montesano, Al Simundsen, Frog Le-tourneau and Bill Lambie.

FOOTBALL POSTPONED

The football game between the Composites and the Canadian Scottish scheduled to be played last night, was postponed until Thursday evening.

Rain Comes To Dry Interior

Is a Little Late for Much Good to Crops Which Could Have Stood it Earlier

SMITHERS, Aug. 27.—A long awaited rain has visited the Bulkley Valley during the past few days. It is generally considered that it is too late to do any good to any of the crops but it will put some much needed moisture into the ground.

There has been a very long dry spell and, while the crops generally are fair throughout the valley, there might have been bumper crops in every line had there been a few timely showers.

Hay is a good crop in places and in other places is pretty light. Timothy seed and grain will be no better than average.

Vegetables, too, have suffered from the long dry spell and potatoes will not be a heavy crop.

Smithers Honors Constable Grant

Farewell Party to be Held Tomorrow Night in His Honor

SMITHERS, Aug. 27.—Constable Andrew Grant of Smithers, who has received notice of his transfer to Duncan, and he will be leaving immediately to take up work in his new post. Constable Grant will be the guest of honor at a farewell party in the reception room of the Canadian Legion at Smithers on Thursday evening.

Constable Grant is one of the best known members of the provincial police in the north, having served in Prince Rupert, Hazelton and Smithers over a term of many years. He is an efficient and conscientious officer. He and his family have a large circle of friends throughout this part of the country who will be sorry to learn that they are moving to another part of the province.

Mrs. Charles Ellison and daughter Betty returned to the city on the Prince Rupert after a four months visit in Vancouver.
