Sunnyside And Arrandale Canneries Closed As Sockeye Fishing Ends-Naskeena To Naas River

So far Sunnyside on the Skeena and Arrandale on the Naas are the only canneries in the Prince Rupert region to close down foilowing the closing down of Skeena and Naas Rivers and Lowe Inlet areas to sockeye salmon fishing by gill net and purse seine. On account of dry weather and low water in the streams, a number of other fishing closures have been ordered by the fisheries department. Lowe Inlet area, with the exception of the west coast of Banks Island and Estevan and Campania Islands, is closed to al. net fishing. Butedale area is closed to all net fishing with the exception of Gardner Canal for gill nets and Kynoch and Mussell Inlets for purse seining. Bella Bella is closed to all fishing except coho gill nets until further notice. Bella Coola area will be closed this week-end to all fishing except gill nets. A few chum are now reported to be showing up in Skidegate Inlet although there are none as yet in any quantity on the east coast of Moresby Island.

Indian Department's cruiser Naskeena left yesterday for Kincolith. Mill Bay and other points on the lower Naas River, having on board Indian Agent James Gillett. Return to Prince Rupert is turned on the Prince Rupert from a expected tomorrow.

LET Reddy Kilowatt" HANDLE YOUR WASHDAY WORRIES

He's a sympathetic chap, is Reddy Kilowatt, with one pet hate: the old fashioned set—tub and washboard. "There should be a law against them," he says, and nothing pleases him more than when these twin symbols of slavery are replaced by an Electric Washer. Then he really goes to work, doing the biggest washing at the snap of a switch, saving wear and tear on YOU, and your clothes. So give the little fellow a chance. He'll do the job for about 15¢ a month! Choose an Electric Washer for YOUR home and take the toil out of washday. Many models to choose from on comfortable budget terms.
