Although somewhat overshadowed of late as a result of changed conditions due to the war, the local Boys' Band continues active as usual and is endeavouring to retain the goodwill which it has enjoyed in the city over such a long period of time during both good days and bad.

WITH THE AMAZING GREEKS

Although threatened now by the senior partner of the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo axis, the Greeks remain undaunted, high in morale and determined to defend their country against all aggressors. Albanian boys indulge in a little hero-worship with a group of Evzones, the hardy fighters who wear ballet costumes in peace times but who showed that they were no "sissies" when it came to chasing invaders halfway back to Rome.

Legion Women Very Active

The Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Mrs. William Rothwell, president, now assisting in the drive of "six-in-one" organizations for the Canadian War Services Fund is by no means an inactive body.
This week their sewing club, headed by Mesdames H. B. Eastman and W. H. Goodsell, completed and despatched to Provincial Command headquarters a splendid shipment of clothes of all descriptions for refugees in the bombed areas of Britain. The clothes made by the members included pyjamas, sleepers, nightdresses, underwear, dresses, baby clothes of all descriptions, knitted suit etc. The young girls classes, headed by Mrs. Malcolm Lamb, knitted most of the baby garments.
A very handsome donation was made to this shipment by Annette's Ladies' Wear and consisted of suits, coats, sports wear, children's coats, dresses and caps etc., which were gratefully acknowledged, as also was a wonderful box of baby garments etc. made by Miss Edith Grundy and a gift of clothing from Mrs. J. Connery and Mrs. Robert Strachan.
