NOVEL AND

"Submarine Zone," With Pat O'Brien And Constance Bennett, At Capitol Theatre

provides a fine action drama. Pat this afternoon. O'Brien and Constance Bennett are starred.

The story poses a virtually unlanswerable question to ten oddly! assorted individuals: "If every moment might be your last, how would you live every precious second?" Then a few desperate moments which might well be their last, the cameras record the thrilling, transformation undergone by a soldier of fortune, a girl who takes her minks and sables where she finds them, a district attorney with gangland's finger on him, a killer who makes his exit in a blaze of glory and depth bombs, a draft-dodger who was born a coward and dies a hero, and a host of other human char-

O'Brien is cast as the soldier of fortune who had hitherto sold his loyalty for cash, until he discovers that loyalty is not for sale. Miss Bennet portrays a "secretary" who also believes that loyalty is something to be sold-for mink coats. It is a role different from anything she has ever before attempt-

Others in the cast include John Halliday as the phoney crusader and district attorney who dies

Pepless Many Suffer Low Blood Count-And Don't Know It. The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did-even look healthy and strong, yet -you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dopey, tired and pepless. Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you Get Dr. Williams Pink Pills today.
