

Hot Baths

... whenever you want them when you have an

ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

No more poking a sulky fire; no more waiting for water to heat and then finding there isn't enough. Just turn the tap instead and enjoy a flow of piping hot water for baths, the dishes, the laundry or any other household need: plenty and to spare. That's real comfort and you can have it at low cost.

Chicago Girl Studies Under Gypsy Rose Lee, Sings In Church Choir

CHICAGO, March 26: (CP)—Six nights a week Nancy Lee Dodge, 18 year old socialite, appears at a theatre-cafe for lessons in strip-teasing from Gypsy Rose Lee whom she serves as understudy. On Sunday it's different. Her only professional engagement that day is at a fashionable church where she sings in the choir. Nancy wants a musical career but says the stage would do.

MORE ELECTRICS

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 26: (CP)—Use of electric power was extended in 100 developments—many of them connected with defence production—during 1940, says Engineering Progress.

ONE SHIP LAUNCHED, ANOTHER STARTED, IN BRITISH YARDS

This photo gives an idea of how British shipyards are working at feverish speed to produce the ships on which the very life of Great Britain depends. One freighter is shown hitting the water, and already the keel of another is being hoisted into place.

TERRACE

In recent written examinations set by the Toronto Conservatory of Music three of the young people of Terrace achieved successful ratings. Miss Janet Young had honors standing in three examinations. Miss Lamb made 98 percent in Grade 2 and Allan Dubeau made 100 percent in Grade 1.

The village commissioners are constructing a new water main leading from Kalum Street to Atwood Street. This line will terminate with a fire hydrant, a safety device long needed.

The Farmers' Institute held a well attended meeting on Thursday. The president, Kenneth Kerr, introduced the district agriculturalist from Smithers who entertained the meeting with some fine movies illustrating the growth of plants, pictures which show seed being planted and growing, springing into leaf, right to the eye. There was also some beautiful scenes of landscaping in which many beautiful flowering shrubs were shown. The part of the meeting was with receiving orders for seeds and seed, in which the institute does a considerable amount among its members.
