McAuslane, vice-pres- annually. ident of the Canadian Congress of Labor, in a speech to the Youth Committee of Prince Rupert at its Canadian Youth Congress, even more than the labor unions, should go the credit for the measure of unemployment insurance which has been achieved in this country, said Mr. McAuslane.

"To speak of peace is impossible under present conditions," the speaker said. "but we still believe it can be achieved on a permanent basis. However, in order to best back Fascism, labor must retain its inglienable rights, including the right to collective bargaining with the employer, and the right to withdraw labor if necessary. A war for the rights of labor, cannot be wen by taking away those rights." The perging of wages at hopelessly inadequate levels was cited as an action which could not fail to hinder the war effort. Instances were cited of workers laboring more than 70 hours a week at nine or ten dollar wages.

Mr. McAuslane expressed hopes that Prince Runert labor unions Good for Babies and Adults & would send delegates to the local youth council when it was set up. that the youth council would send speakers to the local labor council and that, when he might return, he would find the youth; council playing a role befitting those who tomorrow would be guiding the destinies of the na-

Plans for a dance to raise funds for cigarettes for Prince Rupert boys overseas were referred to the executive. A whist drive, open to the public, will be held on Saturday in the Commercial Hotel. This will be preceded by a brief general meeting.

The community centre project was strongly endorsed and the committee offered its co-operation, to those in charge of the present campaign.

Delegates were chosen in answer to a request from the United! Church Young People's Society to! tell it about the youth committee. John Seluk and Charlie McLeod were chosen sports conveners. The vouth committee will try to enter teams in the local basketball league. An actors' and writers' group is being formed, also a number of discussion groups.

LUSTY SEA FILM HERE

Sweeping Action Of Up-to-Date Character Seen In "Long Voyage Home" At Capitol Theatre

A lusty, drama-filled sea tale of stout-hearted men whose heroism and bravery often goes unrecognized but is nevertheless sometimes startling and sensational, "The Long Voyage Home" comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre as the feature picture for the middle of this week on Wednesday and Thursday. Most of the thrilling action unfolds upon a British tramp steamer enroute to England after a long voyage with calls at Caribbean and American ports. As the individual life dramas of motley persons are developed, the action of the story swings into high gear and one of the big scenes involves Ian Hunter, a Britisher of obviously superior breeding and intelligence, who tries to drown his memories in drink. Personal stories are forgotten when a fierce bombing raid strikes terror aboard the ship which is loaded with T. N. T. A raging storm sequence is another feature and a colorful setting is that of London's famous Limehouse section where sailors gather for fun and excitement after the long voyage home.

John Wayne, Thomas Mitchell and Ian Hunter appear in principal starring roles while the featured cast includes Wilfrid Lawson, Barry Fitzgerald, Arthur Shields Mildred Natwick, Carmen Morales. Ward Bond, John Qualen and J The Canadian Youth Congress M. Kerrigan. ----
