know they are my best buy! How do I know? Because I've tried other brands and found that invariably I get more pleasure from Sweet Caps. Since I smoke for pleasure (and who doesn't?) I claim that the cigarettes which give the greatest pleasure for the money give the greatest value. So try Sweet Caps: They're definitely milder and they have a personality you're bound to like.

Rigid Discipline

In this, as in the other services, women leave behind many aspects of civilian life when they join. In their conduct they are expected to show their respect for superior officers, salute the senior officers of their own units and show a similar courtesy to other units. Much emphasis is placed on the respect owed to the uniform. "Women ratings and officers must discharge their duties with zeal and alacrity" the instructions read. "They must be conscious that the uniform is conspicuous and their behaviour should therefore be above reproach. They must not walk arm-in-arm, engage in noisy or rowdy behaviour, but maintain order and discipline." In Britain, the regulations indicate clearly, women in the ser-
