Whifflets From The Waterfront

The United Church mission boat Thomas Crosby, in charge of Rev. Peter Kelly, left Prince Rupert this morning for Queen Charlotte City to spend the next week on the Islands. The Thomas Crosby arrived here last Friday from Ocean Falls and started out Saturday for the Islands but was forced back on account of stress of weather, spending Sunday and Monday in port. There being no resident minister on the Queen Charlotte Islands at present, the Thomas Crosby has been assigned to visit the Islands every second month in addition to her other missionary duties along the coast.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, which was in port from 4:30 to 6:15 yesterday afternoon southbound from Alaska to Vancouver, had on board a total of 160 passengers, mostly Northern British Columbians, Yukoners and Alaskans going south for the winter. Thirteen persons disembarked from the vessel here while eleven took passage from Prince Rupert for the south.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, returned to port at 11:15 this morning from Stewart and other northern points and sailed at 1:30 this afternoon in continuation of her voyage to Vancouver and waypoints.
