GRADUATION CEREMONIES

Diplomas Are Presented to Pupils
Of Grade XII.

Graduation ceremonies were held in the Auditorium of the Booth Memorial High School on Wednesday afternoon when Department of Education High School graduation diplomas were awarded to the students of Grade XII who successfully completed four years of work in the curricula of the High School. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with evergreens, plants and flowers for the occasion. The ceremonies, which were religious and inspirational, deeply impressed the large audience of parents and friends of the young graduates as well as the students who had assembled to witness and take part in the ceremonies.

Very Rev. Dean J. B. Gibson of St. Andrews Cathedral conducted the religious service which consisted of hymns, Bible reading and prayers. Dr. J. T. Mandy delivered the address to the graduating class. It was an inspiring and moving address which will long be remembered by the young graduates as an earnest exhortation and a ringing challenge to noble living, high service, and gentlemanly conduct throughout life. Following the address Dr. Mandy presented the graduation diplomas.

Ethel Knutson, selected by her class as valedictorian, gave the valedictory address, receiving well merited applause for her clearness of enunciation and for the well chosen matter of her speech.

Musical numbers were contributed by Frances Moore, who played as a pianoforte solo "The Dance of the Gollwax," and by Yvonne Riffou who sang "We're Proud of Canada." Yvonne Riffou also played during the processional march of the students and teachers.

W. W. C. O'Neill, principal of the school, presided.

Miss Irene Mitchell supervised students' arrangements. Following the ceremonies, tea was served in the rooms of the home economic department. Mrs. O'Neill and Miss Mitchell rounded, with girls of the graduating class serving.

Members of the graduating class are: Marjorie Allen, Alex. Bill, Betty Blake, Ada Brown, Helen Brown, Eleanor Clapp, Jack Collins, Ellen Doctor, Joan Forest, Joyce Gillett, Marika Kadawaki, Edith Keefe, Kosta Killas, Ethel Knutson, Setsuo Kawahara, Irene Lindsay, James MacKay, Jean MacKay, Don McCoover, Frances Moore, Kayzi Nishio, Dave Oland, Janet Owens, Astril Petersen, Anna Mae
