LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Your next date, Gyro Hallowe'en, Oct. 31. Anton Dybhavn arrived in the city on the Catala this morning from Vancouver. Mrs. Charles Dodimead left for Trail last Thursday owing to the serious illness of her father, D. A. MacKinnon. Charles Graham, inspector of mines, sailed on the Catala this morning for a trip to Stewart on official duties. Rev. E. W. Slater of the Anglican mission boat Northern Cross sailed this morning on the Catala for Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. W. Garlick, who have been on a trip to Vancouver, returned to the city from the south on the Catala this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Letts, who have been on a honeymoon trip south following their recent marriage, returned to the city on the Catala this morning. The train, due to arrive here tomorrow at 11 o'clock from the east, will be at least six hours late owing to delay east of Winnipeg to a main line train. A conference of the city commissioner, D. J. Matheson, with Inspector Ernest Gammon of the provincial police and representatives of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow night in the commissioner's office to consider possible amendments to the local traffic bylaw based on recommendations made by Inspector George A. Hood of the Motor Vehicle branch of the provincial police who made a survey here recently.
