The Prince Rupert Gyro Club was (42) in special business session at the weekly luncheon today to discuss inances in relation to the club's rejects including war activities and playgrounds. President W. F. Stone occupied the chair for the first time since his recent installa-"tion. There was a good aftendance of members. Dr. Jens Munthe, dentist, was elected to membership in the club.

Licence Plates Being Collected

The Imperial Oil, on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross Society, is collecting old automobile licence plates for the utilization of waste PROGRESS material in Canada's war effort. The Motor Carriers' Association of British Columbia is picking them up in each city and town and, sending them to steel and metal mills to be used in manufacture of bombers and fighting equipment. Cast-off licence plates may be left at any downtown garage.
