REDS HOLDING FIRM

MOSCOW, Oct. 16: (CP)—Russia indicated today that the Red Army was holding its lines firm against a steady stream of fresh German units after yielding ground at one sector in the all-out battle for Moscow. A mid-day Russian communique announced that the Red Army was continuing to fight along the whole front.

LONDON, Oct. 16: (CP)—The battle west of Moscow probably "now has reached its crisis," an authoritative source declared today. Very heavy fighting is continuing, this source said, but "it would not appear that the Germans have made any very big advance during the last twenty-four hours." The Soviet Army newspaper
