Look At It Again . . .

May we ask you readers to take a second look at the Blackout Rules and Regulations. They are important and should be obeyed implicitly. It is useless to make regulations if some people to whom they apply do not carry them out. Anyone wilfully breaking a blackout regulation and endangering the whole community is a traitor to the country.

Radio Improvement . . .

There is some interest taken in the fact that, while for several weeks the short wave radio reception in Prince Rupert was very poor, as soon as the blackout commenced the radio reception improved to a very marked extent. Stations that had scarcely been heard for weeks suddenly cleared right up and came through loud and clear. Not a few fans take this as an indication that all bad reception here in normal times is chargeable to atmospheric or other natural conditions.

Knocked Business Flat . . .

The entry of Japan into the war and the rapidly following blackouts knocked business flat early in the week. People temporarily stopped buying Christmas presents. They neglected the theatre and buying dropped in practically all lines. Now it means that the stores will have to make up for lost time and there will be a great rush of purchasers to get their usual Christmas shopping done.

The newspapers have felt the hold-back as much as the merchants. Those who require extra help from the newspapers to move the Christmas goods would be wise to give us as much time as possible to handle the business. Shoppers will have to get busy if they are to secure the goods they require. We strongly urge them to lose no time. Should the blackout be enforced again between now and Christmas it will shorten the days and make buying difficult.

Letter Box

DISTRUSTS JAPANESE

Editor, Daily News:
I cannot refrain from most vehemently condemning the underlined content of the attached clipping:
"The feeling of the authorities here, like elsewhere in the country, is that the great majority of the Japanese people are fixedly loyal to Canadian citizenship and its privileges."
—which appeared in the Thursday, December 11, issue of the Prince Rupert Daily News. The implication of this sentence is not only utter nonsense but it is Japanese propaganda of the most insidious kind. I did not think that the Daily News would ever lend its columns as a tool to the machinations of the most treacherous enemy Canada has ever seen. This printing of such enemy propaganda is a flagrant breach of Defence of Canada Regulations which I know you would most definitely want to avoid.

If the underlined sentence is the "feeling of the authorities here," then these authorities should be removed from any position of authority and put where they can no longer menace the safety of this city, this country.
Why don't you offer for publication in a Japanese paper:
"The great majority of Canadian people in Japan are fixedly loyal to Japanese citizenship and its privileges?"
This is equally nonsensical. Don't be a tool of Japanese propaganda!
JOSEPH T. MANDY.

PLAYER TRADING

Deals in Big League Baseball Players Reported—Yanks Want Camilli.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The traditional tempo of the Major League meetings quickened today with half a dozen deals closed and several others, including the possible sale of Dolph Camilli to the Yanks, in the negotiating stage.

Overnight the Phillies announced the sale of outfielder John Rizzo to Brooklyn and infielder Emmett Mueller to Montreal, a Dodgers' farm; and the New York Giants bought third-base man Bill Werber from Cincinnati and sold outfielders Joe Moore and Morrie Aronovich to Indianapolis. The Werber deal is the first move of Bill Terry, front office man of the Giants now, to give Manager Mel Ott a good start.

Bidding for Camilli
The big talk, however, was the bidding of the world champion New York Yankees for Camilli, veteran first baseman of the pennant-winning Dodgers, and the National League's most valuable player last season when he led in both home runs and runs batted in.

The best guess was that Larry MacPhail, Dodger president, was asking about $75,000 for his prize, even though all other National League clubs waived on him at $7500. President Ed Barrow of the Yanks was thought to have offered about $50,000.

The Dodgers hoped to buy Johnny Mize from the St. Louis Cardinals.

One of the important trades of the winter sessions saw Chicago White Sox give Kreevich and relief pitcher Jack Hallett to Philadelphia Athletics for Moses, a hitter who has never averaged less than .300 in seven years in the big time.

Both the outfielders are 31 years old and came into the American League in 1935 and have been on the verge of stardom from time to time.

Browns to Stay
The American League received a surprise proposal for the transfer of St. Louis Browns to Los Angeles, but a short discussion of the transportation and other problems involved showed the owners to be unanimously against any change and President Will Harridge of the American League said no formal vote had to be taken.

Frankie Frisch's contract as manager of Pittsburgh Pirates was extended an additional year to include the 1943 season. No announcement of salary was made.

New York Yankees announced the sale of Tommy Holmes, star outfielder of their Newark farm in the International League, to Boston Braves for cash and a player to be named later.

It's wonderful what a little classified advertising may do for you. Most people read the classified ads. (1f)

SPORT CHAT

Bob Feller, Cleveland's pitching ace, has applied for enlistment in the naval reserve at a Great Lakes training station. Feller, according to Commander Gene Tunney, applied for the rank of chief boatswain's mate and would probably be placed in the physical department if he passes routine mental and physical tests.

"Lefty" Grove, forty-one year old pitching star of the Boston Red Sox, has been given his outright release at his own request. No reason for Grove's retirement was given by the club in making the announcement.

Joe Louis, Detroit's Brown Bomber, flattened Paulino Uzcundum in four rounds at New York six years ago tonight. It was the first time the Basque was knocked out in 13 years of fighting. Joe is now undisputed champion of the boxing world.
