POWELL AND MYRNA LOY

Another Of Popular Comedy Romances Coming To Capitol Theatre

With William Powell and Myrna Loy teamed again in another of their merry love adventures, "Love Crazy" comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre as the feature offering next Monday and Tuesday, the showing inaugurating a a new showing policy.

The screen's famous husband and wife find discord in the new spicture when Myrna becomes jealous of Gail Patrick and wants to divorce Powell. He learns that an insane man cannot be divorced so stages all manner of queer antics to feign insanity. The trouble is that he fools the alienists who take him seriously and want to bundle him off to an asylum. Then his frantic efforts to prove that he is not really crazy make him appear all the crazier. Amid diverse complications, he finally extricates himself from the web of deceit after getting caught in an elevator, chewing up a phonograph record and even impersonating a woman. Gail Patrick plays the beautiful school friend who precipitates the husband and wife quarrel and Jack Carson complicates matters by laying siege to Miss Loy's affections. Florence Bates has a big fun-making part as a mother-inlaw. Others in the cast include Sidney Blackmer, Vladimir Sokoloff, Kathleen Lockhart, Fern Emmett, Joseph Crehan, George, Meeker, Sig Rumann and Sara Haden.

The Lowe Inlet area will be closed for the season to all net fishing as from September 19 in order to permit escapement of fish to the spawning areas up creeks which have been exceptionally dry this summer owing to lack of rain. Announcement to this effect was made by the Department of Fisheries today. The area will remain open to trolling.
