First Presbyterian Church Makes Presentation to Two Men Who Reconditioned Interior.

Last night in First Presbyterian Church hall a social evening was held by the members of the church for the purpose of expressing appreciation to Privates J. S. Wood and R. W. Terry of the Second Eattalion Canadian Scottish for their excellent work in redecorating the interior of the church

Chairman for the evening was Rev. A. F. MacSween. The program included a solo by J. A. Teng, a piano duet by Mrs. E. J. Smith and Dr. H. N. Brocklesby and moving pictures by Peter Lakie.

M. MacSween presented the two soldiers with handsome cigarette lighters engraved and with egimental crests as well as a

W. W. C. O'Neill, on behalf of the session and the members, thanked all those who assisted in the redecoration of the church. In the absence of G. C. Mitchell, E. J. Smith also expressed he thanks and appreciation of the board of managers to all those who gave their assistance.

Refreshments were served by the members of the Ladies' Aid under the direction of Mrs. J. A Teng.
