Big Canned Salmon Pack This Year—Double Service to Continue Until End of Year.

British Columbia's salmon pack is now expected to exceed the 1,700,000 cases estimated at the beginning of the season, according to Major J. A. Motherwell, head of the Dominion Department of Fisheries at the coast. The estimate was named as the approximate volume to meet the needs of Canada, general export, and the 1,200,000 cases ordered by the British government. It is also believed likely that the total pack this year will be the highest for a number of years past, and it is suggested the total figure will be around 2,000,000 cases. Already it is reaching towards the estimate and the season does not close entirely until the end of November though some areas close sooner. Big packs of past recent years are 2,221,000 cases for 1930, 1,800,000 in 1936, and 1,707,000 cases in 1938. While chum seining was at its peak at the beginning of October the fish had not yet commenced to show up at the Fraser river. On Johnstone Straits the seiners were catching 750 to 1200 fish each daily.

Double-weekly service of Canadian National Steamships between Prince Rupert and Vancouver will continue until the end of the year when the steamer Prince Rupert will be withdrawn for her annual overhaul. This will take up six weeks and, on completion, the Prince Rupert will go back on the run so the Prince George may be taken off for her overhaul. About early April it is expected the double service will be resumed.

Having been delayed by fog out of Vancouver which caused her to miss the tide in Seymour Narrows, C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Neil McLean, did not arrive in port until 3:30 yesterday afternoon, sailing last evening in continuation of her voyage to Ketchikan and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

Having been delayed by stormy weather in the north, the C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 10 o'clock last night from Alaska and sailed a couple of hours later for Vancouver. The vessel had on board a good-sized list of passengers, consisting largely of northerners bound south for the winter.

Miss V. Rosang sailed on the Princess Adelaide last night for Vancouver.

COMEDY OF ARMY LIFE

"Caught in the Draft" Here With Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour.

Replete with mad new army gags, "Caught in the Draft," an uproarious comedy with Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour in the leading roles, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here on Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Against a background of running wild tanks, comedy warfare, parachute drops and catchy new tunes, the picture describes a rookie's life in the army.

Dorothy Lamour, the colonel's daughter, is in love with Private Bob Hope but she cannot marry him on account of her father's objections. The rookie is caught between the cross-fire of Dorothy's sarcasm and the colonel's fury as he slides out of one hot corner into another.

Lynne Overman and Eddie Bracken keep Bob company in his escapades which almost cause total disaster. Hope emerges as a hero during some war games at the climax of the film. He turns disaster into laughter by a master stroke of strategy which saves the army from a military trap.

Editorial

There will be general regret in the city over the sudden death of Mrs. G. W. Nickerson which took place on Thursday evening. She was a lady of cheerful disposition, given to good neighborliness and one whose place in the community it will be difficult to fill.

The whole community will sympathize with Mr. Nickerson in the loss. As one of Prince Rupert's leading citizens, Mr. Nickerson is known to everyone. Mrs. Nickerson had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances and, having lived in the city so many years, she was well known and popular. We feel that we voice the feeling of the community in saying that all regret the loss of an esteemd citizen.

T. Sakamoto of Osland returned to the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday on his way home from a business trip to Vancouver.
