Strong Opposition . . .

Last night a number of people heard the views of the leader of the official opposition in the legislature at Victoria. They were clearly stated and a fair summary will be found in this paper today. It is essential that the opposition to any government shall be a searching one. It should want to know the reason why each step is taken and make sure that the people of the province know what it is all about. It is one of our methods of protecting the people, a safeguard.

The intention of this system is that the opposition shall not necessarily oppose everything that the Government does but shall make sure that the people understand it so that they may judge as to the advisability or otherwise of the legislation. During the period when he is acting as chief government critic the opposition leader is preparing himself to take over the administration of affairs if he should be entrusted with the duty. Curiously enough the government of the day pays the leader of the opposition a salary for acting as its chief critic, a recognition that in order to insure good government there must be strong, virile criticism.

Attitude Must Change . . .

If there is to be peace in the Pacific the whole attitude of Japan must change. For the past year or more Japan has been carrying out a vexation policy such as no friendly country could well adopt toward another. First hand information received in the city indicates that the lot of a British citizen in Japanese occupied Chinese ports has been unbearable. Japan has adopted a generally hostile attitude and the British government has asked that the British people in the Orient be long-suffering and try not to create any incident which might precipitate hostilities. It has been part of that policy of appeasement which has been such a failure from the first.

Today Britain is adopting a different attitude. While hostilities will be carefully avoided it is evident that Britain is determined to stand on her rights and see that Japan adopts a proper attitude toward her neighbors. If there is to be peace this situation must be recognized and the irritating policy must stop.

IS WINNER FOR YEAR

Grotto Takes City Softball Honors For Season

With Grotto having won both the first and second half competitions and thereby taking the city championship for the season, the curtain has now rung down on the regular senior softball activities although there will probably be some specially arranged games in connection with the forthcoming civic centre carnival. Grotto did not lose a single game on play during the year although it dropped one by default.

Last night in the final regular league game Steel Workers defeated Stone's Clothiers 7 to 3. Steel Workers made ten hits and Stone's Clothiers, four. Batteries were Kellet and McIntyre for Steel Workers and Stiles and Art Murray for Stones.

In an exhibition game City all stars won a close 11 to 10 decision over Army. Hits were nine to eight in favor of the Army. McLeod was heavy hitter for the Army and Simundsen for All Stars. Batteries were Beynon and Murray for the City and Letgatep and Gracie for Army.

Woman Teacher Cramped Style

Or Perhaps Brought Blushes To Swimmers In Town Pool

HECKMONDIKE, Eng., Aug. 9: (P)—He-men of Heckmondike (population 8,991) must not be embarrassed by the presence of a woman when they have the town swimming pool to themselves so the council fired Mrs. O. Wilkinson who gave schoolboys lessons there.

Costumes were scantier than when mixed bathing took place, and "it is felt that presence of a woman would be embarrassing to the men," said Fred Kilburn, chairman of the swimming committee. He insisted Heckmondike "is not a bit prudish."

Cracked the 38-year old Mrs. Wilkinson: "I am far too engrossed in teaching to take any notice of what sort of costume the men wear." But Town Clerk G. Holt said "indoor bathing after all is rather different from an outdoor pool." So Mrs. Wilkinson is being replaced by a male teacher.

SPORT CHAT

A group of Royal Canadian Air Force sergeants following a refresher course at a training centre in England spent their spare time touring neighboring British Army camps showing the Tommies how to use baseball equipment with which they had been equipped. Some of the results looked more like the score of football matches — one game ending 17-6 in favor of the Canadians and another 37-9—but Sgt. K. R. Jackson of Saskatoon swears "it was just that we knew how to take advantage of the breaks."

The Canadians had a clean record and Sgt. Max Reid of Hamilton, Ont., who acted as battery with Sgt. B. Dermody of Kennedy, Sask., didn't lose a game. The team claims to have won the mythical championship of Chipping Norton which has a Canadian National Baseball Club and a shield which is awarded to the team that beats its nine in scheduled competitions. Jackson said at one camp the Canadians found two complete sets of uniforms "held over from 1890, but there was a lot of good equipment to make up for it." Other members of the team included Sgts. H. Keane and Guy Rainville of Quebec City, T. Fox, Lunenburg, N.S., Neil Williamson, St. Thomas, Ont., C. Fuller, Richmond, Que., H. Hibbard, Montreal, and A. Rall, Toronto.

Co-Operatives Ball Winners

Defeated Watts and Nickerson By Score Of 8 To 1

In the Intermediate League baseball game last night Co-operatives won a foggy decision when they defeated Watts and Nickerson by a score of 8 to 1. Vuckovich, main hurler for Watts and Nickerson, showed good sportsmanship when he quit the team after throwing himself in the hole. He is now signed up with Co-op. Roy Paulis, recently from Terrace and Cedarvale, will be on the mound Sunday night.
