"But I have been very lucky always, so probably a bit of bad luck is good for me, much as I resent it at the present. Happily Fitzgerald (his A.D.C.) was not with me in the crash. I got concussion, but three hours in the sea is a wonderful cure and I never had a 'head' afterwards and managed quite a good swim, though I'm off sea bathing for the future." General de Wiart said his great est trial was the lack of accurate news of the war's progress.
