Financing Germany - - -

Many people have asked how Germany is financing this war. It was said before the war commenced that German finances were badly strained and that a break would come before very long. Since that she has been spending like a drunken sailor and always seems to find means for subversive purposes as well as for war mater-

One way that country has of getting materials without paying for them is by looting the conquered countries, banks, private homes, churches. Anything in sight is legitimate prey.

As one writer says: "The plunder attains astronomical figures and French accountants get an acute painful; headache in trying to estimate the worth of the merchandise filched from France and removed to Germany."

The greatest steal of all is by the method of using "occupation marks" with which to buy from the conquered peoples. It is easier and more polite to use this method. This money has nothing behind it except German bayonets. Every German army division has a printing press and the daily production is said to be ten million dollars in France alone. The Bank of France is compelled to take this phony money.

Package for Package Sweet Caps are your best eigarette buy!

JUDGE BY THE PACKAGE.

Some few people say they can't tell the difference between one cigarette and another. But regular smokers know that, by the package or the day's smoking, there's a big difference. It's this big difference which makes Sweet Caporal Canada's most popular cigarettes, and in addition they're more uniform and taste better. On all counts, package for package, Sweet Caps are your best cigarette buy.
