"If I had my way, I would write the word 'Insure' over the door of every cottage, and upon the blotting book of every public man; because I am convinced that, for sacrifices that are inconceivably small, families can be secured against catastrophes which otherwise would smash them up for ever. It is our duty to arrest the ghastly waste not merely of human happiness, but of national health and strength which follows when, through the death of the breadwinner, the frail boat in which the fortunes of the family are embarked founders and the women and children are left to struggle helplessly on the dark waters of a friendless world."
