BIG CITY

James Cagney and Ann Sheridan Head Cast of First of Week Feature Picture at Capitol

A powerful big city romantic drama, "City for Conquest," is the feature picture for the first of this week at the Capitol Theatre. It is a turbulent, exciting story with James Cagney and Ann Sheridan in the leading roles.

Cagney's part is that of an East Side newsboy who discovers that one must be hard and tough to make a dent in the town. Ann Sheridan has the role of a girl who finds that the price of success can be very high. Together they plan to beat their way through the cruel oppression of the great city. Ann dances her way to fame while Cagney tries to earn enough money to marry her and send his brother through music school. They find that the city can be conquered but only if one can face great tragedy and sacrifice.

There is an excellent supporting cast. Frank Craven is an unkempt but wise old philosopher who knows New York inside out from the Battery to the Bronx. Frank McHugh has a humorous part as a typical New Yorker who is never at a loss for words of advice. Donald Crisp, Arthur Kennedy, Joyce Compton and other well known screen figur-Basutos Choose Late Chief's Widow es are included in the cast.
