Pioneers Picnic In Honor Of Dick Sargent

SMITHERS, July 12 .- All roads led to Hazelton Thursday where all he old timers and some that are lows eers' Picnic and to honor R. S. (Dick) Sargent who was celebrating 50 years residence in Hazelton.

Smithers, Telkwa, Quick, Topley, oneer town which has been so well known as a Hudson Bay post and head of Skeena River navigation for so many years.

At no time in its long history has Red Cross materials and marked Hazelton had so many holidaymakers and it is a fine tribute to Dick Sargent that the prime reason of the gathering is to honor his long residence and good work in that community.

Mr. Sargent first came to Hazelton in the employ of the Hudson Bay Co. when he was only eighteen years of age. He later went into business for himself and has continued that way for forty years. Besides his store in Hazelton he also established stores in Smithers and in Telkwa. The Smithers store was closed up about eight years ago owns the Hazelton Hotel and has many other interests in the district.

The host of friends who met with him today in Hazelton and many others who were not fortunate
