For such is the spirit of Britain, and such is the kingdom which free men love and fight for, keeping love in their hearts and declaring it before the world. So did Churchill, broadcasting Britain's first war aim to the world. There is increasing evidence of this spirit of Britain, a spirit which Churchill likens to the spirit of Waterloo, a spirit to inspire love and to preserve it. Let us keep this spirit kindled, let us lend for Victory!

GROWING IN NORWAY; CRISIS IS DEVELOPING

OSLO, March 8.— A crisis is rapidly developing in Norway. On all sides, the Nazi puppet government is faced with growing resistance. Unemployment, stagnation of production and paralysis of trade are daily becoming more acute. According to reports, the Nazis have told Quisling to put his house in order HOME FOR BLITZ BABIES
