The motion placed on the board affecting the Finance Committee which until last Tuesday consisted of the Mayor, Alderman Douglas, chairman, and Ald. Bullock-Webster, will if carried amount to a vote of no confidence in that finance committee. The onus of responsibility seems principally to lie on the shoulders of the mayor and Ald. Douglas, Ald. Bullock-Webster having apparently had but small part in the doings of the committee, though he has always shouldered his share of responsibility as a member of it, most manfully. Monday night will witness an important session of the council and probably a stormy one.

You are invited to call for afternoon tea at the Methodist Church, Thursday afternoon. 21
