modore Cafe, the president, H. F. marine. Pullen, in the chair with a good attendance of members present. The principal business of the evening was the election of new officers as follows:

Honorary President, Hon. T. D.

Honorary Vice-President, R. I McIntosh.

President, H. T. Lock. Vice-President, C. P. Balagno. Secretary, C. G. Ham.

Executive-Theo Collart, Frank Warne, P. C. Miller, Leonard Cripps, Mrs. R. M. Winslow, Mrs. T. Priest, Mrs. J. B. Gillett, Mrs. C. J. Norrington and H. F. Pullen. In taking over the duties of president Mr. Lock promised to do his best to carry on the activities of the Society and asked for full co-operation.

The secretary reported that durthe past year a successful flower show had been held. A spring plant sale helped to finance the show. A useful weed burner had been purchased for the use of members and the general public. Those who had contributed prizes were thanked. Votes of thanks were passed to the retiring president, and Mrs. N. M. Carter.

The Society decided to co-Joperate with the Junior Chamber of Commerce in carrying on the clean-up campaign next month. Theo. Collart emphasized the desirability of keeping up an attracchurch circle at Hartley Bay to be Bishop Rix and the B. C. Tourist preciated.

Mr. Little read to the classes excerpts from reports of military observers at the various ARP. staions. These reports mentioned the general efficiency of the first aid and nursing groups.

It was suggested that use of the schools might be obtained for nursthe abit first air ment ees in order o further perfect the organization. In about two weeks' time the latest first aid classes will be having their examinations.
