Due to rain there is a generally short crop of potatoes this year and already there have been importations from Washington during the past two months. The situis a little better in the north where crops have been fairly good. While there are enough potatoes to fill the demand, the prices are higher than last year owing to the general shortage.

Canned goods are not very plenciful and buying is limited to small quantities. The next three or four months will see a big difference in the situation as stocks become cleaned up.

"Footsteps in the Dark," With Errol Flynn and Brenda Marshall, Coming to Capitol Theatre.

An exciting comedy - mystery, Footsteps in the Dark," starring the dashing Errol Flynn, comes to the Capitol Theatre this mid-week as the feature offering.

Flynn plays the part of a mysto keep his literary exploits a secret from his wife and mother-insigned a through plate girder span law. He gets himself into a mess with the police, on one hand, accusing him of murder of a beautiful blonde while, on the other. his wife charges him with being unfaithful. Eventually he straightens things out but only after a series of harrowing and laughprovoking experiences that contrive to make very acceptable entertainment.

Co-starred with Flynn is Brenda Marshall who played opposite him in "The Sea Hawk.". The! supporting cast includes such luminaries as Ralph Bellamy, Lee Patrick, Alan Hale, Allen Jenkins,
