Mining Of Waters Outside Of New York Harbor Is Regarded As Significant Move

NEW YORK, June 16:-Arming of American vessels with instruc tions to protect themselves may be an early move o fthe United States Department of the Navy. The Navy has been getting ready for some time to provide guns and gun mounts for the merchant fleet. Another significant move is that waters off New York Harbor are to be mined between June 15 and Sentember 30.

The incident of the Robin Moore and the s'atement of Under Secmary of State Sumner Welles that United States will not be impressed by bluster and threats are considered as basis for United States naval moves.

Heroic defenders of Crete, forced to give ground by increasing strength of German airborne invasion forces and Nazi domination of the air, have been withdrawn from the island. This picture, released by the air ministry in London, shows a si nilar withdrawal from the Greek mainland when outnumbered Allied armies, after fighting brilliant rearguard actions, were taken off. A giant Sunderland flying boat of the R.A.F. is picking up air force personnel in a rocky and hill-rimmed Greek cove. These huge planes played an important part on the withdrawal from Greece and may have been similarly valuable in removing su vivors of the Crete battles.

British Colonial Under-Secretary Talks Of A New Social Order

MOUNTAIN ASH, Wales, June 16: (CP) — George Hall, undersecretary for the colonies, said in a speech here that even during Successful Attack by Royal Air the war something like a new labor code is being worked out to lay the foundations of a new social order in the countries within the

"These plans will offset the talk; of exploitation, about which we hear so much," he said. "It is time we talked about some of the good things that are happening in the colonies. The watch on interests of working people has increased four fold. Hundreds of laws and regulations dealing with labor conditions have been passed and 160 colonia! trade unions are registered under the colonial trade union law."

He added that while there were grievances in the colonies, there were no fugitives and hundreds of Jean, the little six-year-old thousands of persons were waiting

GERMANY AND RUSSIA

ANKARA-A rift has developed in high quarters in Russia over inclination of Premier Joseph Stalin to concede to drastic demands of Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany for economic collaboration of the Soviet. Important new political developments with the Soviet are anticipated soon. The Red Army is said to be strongly opposed to any policy of appeasement for Germany. Two million German troops are massed on the Russian frontier all the way from Finland to the Black Sea, it is reported.
