Send In Your News Earlier

Due to changed conditions arising from the handling of late war news, the Daily News finds it necessary to set a 10 a.m. deadline for local news contributions. To insure publication it will be necessary for contributors to have their copy in by that time or earlier if possible, preferably the night before. Otherwise it may not be published.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

That redoubtable trio of anglers —Jim Bacon, A. K. Nelson and Alois Ohnesorg—are authority for another tale which we would call a tall one if they were not men of such great integrity. It seems they were out fishing over the week-end near Ryan Point. Nelson was pulling a fine big cutthroat out of the water when a big eagle spied the catch and swooped down and grabbed it off the line in his talons. A. K., not to be robbed in that fashion, picked up a big rock and drove the eagle off. The fish was dropped at the very feet of the angler and was retrieved. Stories notwithstanding, the party brought home a fine bag to show that there are some really good fish at that point.

Two Alaska tourist liners, each with over two hundred passengers on board, were in port yesterday morning, both arriving out of the fog at 10:15 a.m. C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Neil McLean, spent the most of the day in port, sailing at 4 p.m. for Vancouver being on the final lap of the Alaska voyage returning south. Aboard C. P. R. steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. William Palmer, which sailed at 1 p.m., were 219 passengers of whom fifteen disembarked here, half a dozen taking passage from here for the north.

A slight falling off in the sockeye run on the Skeena and Naas Rivers continues with gillnet boat averages around 25 or 30 fish per day. The pink average in the gillnets is also around 25 or 30. Seiners are not doing very much as yet.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, is due in port at 7:30 this evening from Stewart and other northern points and will sail at 8 p.m. for Vancouver.

WATER
is Good Whisky's perfect companion

A good companion allows a friend to express himself freely. That is why water is the perfect companion of good whisky. It allows whisky to tell its own story.

The Seagram Canadian Whiskies are distilled, aged and blended to meet the water test. They are of such exquisite flavour that men who know good whiskies refuse to mix with them anything other than plain or sparkling water.

It is this delightful and exclusive smoothness that has caused the Seagram whiskies to outsell all others on the American continent.
