DON'T WORRY ABOUT AFRICA

We do not think anyone need worry about North Africa. The British have been retreating and they may retreat more yet until they think they have the position of advantage over the combined Italo-German army. When Wavell is ready there should be something doing. The army there seems to have been weakened by the withdrawal of men to go to Greece. We may be sure that General Wavell will not sacrifice more men than is necessary. A few weeks in the hot sun of the Sahara Desert will not improve the morale of the Germans who recently arrived there.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Quite a few spring salmon seemed to be running around Arrandale at the mouth of the Naas River, according to reports, reaching the city from there this morning. During the day nineteen big fish of this variety were caught off Arrandale.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Shepherd, returned to port at 10 o'clock this morning from Stewart, Anyox and other northern points, sailing at 1:30 this afternoon for Vancouver and way-points.

Tonight's train, due from the East at 11 o'clock, was reported this afternoon to be one hour and fifty minutes late.

APPRECIATION

Editor, Daily News:
I should be glad to have the opportunity to express through the columns of your paper the great satisfaction at the splendid results of the United Services campaign in Prince Rupert and adjacent area. I do this in my capacity as a member of the provincial executive council of the British Columbia Command of the Canadian Legion.

The Canadian Legion learned in the last war the need for complete co-operation to ensure complete success. As a result the Legion has increased the advisability of combining the different financial campaigns to provide the funds necessary for the vital work of the auxiliary services into one drive. The results in Prince Rupert have shown how successful co-operation can be.

Naturally I have been gratified at the splendid support given by the many contributors, by the many organizations, by people of all walks of life, of all creeds and of all nationalities. The men now serving can feel assured that they have the united support of us all. That means far more than words can express. They look to us for support. Prince Rupert has given that support generously.

To the chairman, Col. J. W. Nicholls, the vice-chairman, H. A. Breen and the secretary, A. M. Davies, all members of the Legion, I would extend congratulations and to the treasurer, Fred Conrad, a special word of thanks and appreciation. And to every other member, canvasser and contributor a very special thank you.

Thanking you, sir,
JOHN S. WILSON

Canadian Legion Receives Acknowledgements—Executive Meeting Last Night

Included in the correspondence read at the executive meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion last evening were many acknowledgements from former Prince Rupert boys now serving in the forces overseas. These letters expressed the great enjoyment by the boys of the cigarettes sent and the gratification that they knew they were not being forgotten by the soldiers of the last Great War.

Letters of thanks were also received from various organizations which had been afforded the use of the Legion rooms for naval and military functions.

Recommendations of the Legion in the matter of party patronage, employment service in Canada and education were also acknowledged by the Dominion Command and by Olof Hanson, M. P.

Those in attendance were H. A. Breen, who presided, and Neil Cameron, George Abbott, J. M. Walker, John Armstrong, S. A. Cheeseman and Jack Preece.

George E. Cleveland, well known Juneau banker, and Mrs. Cleveland were passengers aboard the Princess Norah yesterday afternoon going through for a trip to California.

Water...is Whisky's Severest Critic.

Plain water is plain-spoken when it is mixed with whisky. Only the smoothest, kindest whiskies dare submit themselves to the challenge of the water test.

Every drop of Seagram's is distilled, aged and blended to meet this one all-searching test. Seagram Whiskies demand nothing more than plain or sparkling water to give you a truly delightful drink.
