Cantata Is
Well Done"Gathsemane" Rendered With Fine
Effect In United Church

A large congregation in attendance at the First United Church on Sunday evening heard with marked appreciation a fine rendering of the sacred cantata "Gathsemane" by an augmented choir.

The soloists — Mrs. R. G. Large, Mrs. H. T. Lock and J. E. Davey—all sang their numbers with a fine appreciation of the pathos and tragedy of the events in the sacred garden.

In the more forceful and dramatic numbers that gave ample scope for varied interpretations. Effective numbers were male quartettes sung by J. E. Davey, Bruce Stevens, Sergeant and the redemptive one. The daily Docker and Dr. R. G. Large. The choir sang with nice discrimination and was also his great reward for bearing it he could say "Thanks to God who giveth us the vic-tory."

Miss Swanna Olafson, at the organ, accompanied all numbers with complete success. J. S. Wilson was leader. Members of the choir taking part in addition to the soloist were Mrs. E. P. Jenner, Mrs. E. G. Southby, Mr. Clarke McLean, Mrs. T. Fraser, Mrs. Cherry, Mrs. P. C. Miller, Mrs. Foster, Miss D. Sharp, Miss J. Green, Miss I. Connery, O. C. Young and Frank Derry.

In the morning service Rev. J. C. Jackson spoke on the "Three Crosses." Based on three quotations from the Bible "Take up thy Cross," "Take up His Cross Daily," Mr. Jackson spoke first of the general cross that calls for sacrifice rather than selfishness. Those who sacrificed most gained most. Then there was the cross of the individual. It varied with the individual. On Calvary there were three crosses—the penal one, the reformative one and the redemptive one. The daily Docker and Dr. R. G. Large.
