Do Be Careful This Christmas

Don't Spoil The Holiday Season By Getting Hurt

Sure, we know Christmas falls on December 25, but unless you exercise a little caution, you're apt to fall anytime during the holiday season.

Most tumbles are the result of carelessness and haste, but the effects can be long-lasting. Don't let pop perch dangerously on a chair to reach the top of the tree with an ornament; get him a sturdy stepladder. Before you rush down the hall to greet the guests, make sure the place isn't cluttered with Junior's new roller skates, Mary's doll carriage and Mother's vacuum cleaner. Arrange portable electric cords connecting tree lights so the youngsters won't stumble over them.

Speaking of guests, be sure to clear snow and ice from the front walk and porch steps. Keep the porch light burning when you expect visitors. If there are outdoor ornamental lights arrange them so some illumination will fall on the steps. Then your guests won't.
