PREACHING THE GOSPEL

Editor, Daily News:

In the editorial Monday reference is made to a letter received in which the charges are made that the local pastors do not preach the Gospel and that, therefore, people do not attend the churches. As no more serious charge could be lodged against any minister of the Gospel, the charge will undoubtedly lead every honest pastor in Prince Rupert to examine himself sincerely before God in this matter. For, if we preach not the Gospel, we are "false prophets," "unfaithful stewards," and the curse of such sins rest upon us. If, on the other hand, we preach the Gospel, in its purity and fulness, we can rest assured that there will be results pleasing to God. Souls and lives will be saved, for time and eternity.

The only perfect teacher and preacher the world has ever seen was the Master Himself. When He first began people flocked to hear Him. However, as He continued to preach God's Truth concerning man and God's way of saving man, many, yes, most people turned away from Him and "walked no more with Him." Some of them said: "this is a hard saying, who can hear it?" Others said about Him that "He was of the devil." Finally, after three years of public ministry, it seemed that He had failed entirely. Not only was He led, as it seemed, helplessly to the cross but there was a congregation of barely one hundred souls that He had built up.
