Were Married On Monday Morning

Miss Helen Isabel Smith and Joseph Cain, Both of Calgary, Are United

A pretty but quiet marriage was solemnized at the Church of the Annunciation, Rev. Father W. F. Lantagne celebrating nuptial mass at 8 o'clock Monday morning, when Miss Helen Isabel Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carmel A. Smith of Calgary, became the bride of Joseph Cain, son of Wilfrid Cain and the late Mrs. Cain of Calgary. There was quite a large congregation including naval friends of the groom.

The bridesmaid was Miss Delphine Balagno and William Simpson was groomsman. Charles P. Balagno presided at the organ.

Following the church rites, a wedding breakfast was served at the Commodore Cafe. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Father Lantagne with the groom responding. The groomsman responded to a toast to the bridesmaid which was proposed by the groom. A handsome wedding cake was duly cut by the bride.

The couple will reside in the city, the groom being in the naval service here.

Rebekah Grand Lodge Officers Pay Visit Here

On Monday night in the Oddfellows Hall, the President of the Rebekah Assembly of British Columbia, Mrs. Marie Summerville of Victoria, paid her official visit to Centenial Lodge No. 40. She was accompanied by the Assembly warden, Mrs. Jean Tewnion, and Assembly marshal Edith Simm, both of Vancouver. The Grand Master of the I.O.O.F. of British Columbia, Charles Tewnion of Vancouver, was also present.

It was rather a unique occasion for the lodge to have so many Grand Lodge visitors present and there was a large turnout of members.

After the meeting the Oddfellows were invited and delicious refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. W. Haines and Mrs. T. Morrison.
