Salvation Army Women Are Busy

Red Shield Organization Functioning Well-Has Produced Considerable Garments

The Salvation Army Red Shield women's auxiliary organization held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening with a large number of women in attendance.

A report on the recent tea was hid and a vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. G. M. Hunt for the use of her home for the affair. A large parcel of knitted goodssocks, scarves, sweaters, helmets and refugee clothing-was dispatched this week.

The hostel on Second Avenue what they want that way.

has been supplied with curtains by the Women of the Red Shield, this adding to the comfort of the local soldiers who are using the hostel.

Appreciation was expressed to all persons who are assisting in the work in any way.
