Co-Operation With Ottawa - - -

Now that there is an election campaign starting an attempt is being made to show that the British Columbia government refused to co-operate with the Federal government in the war effort. This of course is wholly incorrect. What Premier Pattullo refused to do was to agree to the adoption of the Sirois report. In that he has been consistent throughout. It was admitted that there was in the Sirois report very much that was good. The difference between the two governments was that the Federal government insisted that the conference was called to consider the report and nothing else. Mr. Pattullo refused to allow the province to be tied and bound by it for all time to come. He always promised full co-operation in war work and this he has given.

Independent Opinion - - -

Here is an independent opinion in regard to whether the Pattullo government is doing the right thing or not just now in appealing to the people for endorsement of its position on all counts. The Vancouver News Herald says: "The announcement from Victoria that the provincial election will be held in October has had a peculiar effect upon some of the self-appointed critics of the government. In one breath they tell us that the government's record in office is 'indefensible'—in the next breath they declare that there is no need for an election at all. The only certain result of an election, they say, will be the disruption of B.C.'s war effort.

"The role of the opposition press is a difficult one in war time, but we had never realized that it was as tortuous as all that. Surely, if the record of the government is as bad as its political opponents would have us believe, there is every good and patriotic reason for an election!"

"Actually, politically biased critics aside, the decision to hold an election this Fall simply conforms to a well established precedent. Far from harming the war effort a public discussion of what B. C. is doing in the war should be beneficial.

"The suggestion that the province is incapable of performing a democratic function at this time without harm to the war effort is scarcely complimentary to the public's intelligence."

SPORT CHAT

Robert Moses (Left) Grove registered the three hundredth pitching victory of his colorful Major League baseball career last Friday when the Boston Red Sox defeated the Cleveland Indians by a score of 10 to 6. The New York Yankees further tightened their iron grasp on the American League pennant by blanking the Chicago White Sox eight to nothing. The Yankees were then eleven full games ahead of the Indians.

In the National League both pace-making teams suffered reverses Friday. The leading St. Louis Cardinals were blanked eight to nothing by the Boston Bees and the second place Brooklyn Dodgers suffered a double defeat at the hands of Pittsburgh Pirates. The Cardinals' margin of supremacy over the Dodgers is one full game. The double victory allowed the Pirates to slip up into third place ahead of the Cincinnati Reds who were losing to the Phillies and the New York Giants although the latter won over Chicago Cubs.

Q. C. ISLANDS

Mrs. B. A. Munro was hostess recently when her guests during the tea hour were Mesdames E. Size, G. Chastaney, O. Hill, Bert Roberts, G. Blomgren and A. Gordon. In the evening at two tables of bridge those playing were Mrs. Roy McKenzie, Mrs. A. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. G. Chastaney, Constable and Mrs. C. Ramsay, Mrs. Bert Roberts and Mrs. E. Size.

Mrs. George Blomgren entertained recently when her guests included Mesdames J. Carstairs, George Fife, W. Nybloom, Audrey Hames, Roy McKenzie, W. Barry, B. A. Munro, E. Size, G. Wilcox, O. Hill, L. Longacre and G. Overington and the Misses Winnifred Boughton of Winnipeg, Pat Coyle of Vancouver and Pearl Gildersleve of Rivers Inlet. A feature of the tea was the exchange of favorite recipes. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon.

A jolly dance was held in Miller's Hall when the Queen Charlotte Social Club put on its regular affair. Music was supplied by the R. C. A. F. orchestra. There was a good crowd in attendance. Admission tags were in the form of novelty toy lapel ornaments and, no doubt, will be prized as souvenirs. A "broom" dance, using a life-sized paper doll, was an innovation. Supper was served at the nearby restaurants. Mrs. Duncan McCall and Mrs. George Chastaney were in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Harry R. Beaven and Mrs. Gordon Jolliffe are spending their holidays at Sandspit. This delightful farm community with its sandy beaches is a favorite vacation spot for the local folk.

Mrs. Nicholas Shafer was the hostess at a tea given for members of the local Red Cross committee. In the absence of the president, Mrs. C. Ramsey, the vice-president was in the chair. Several members promised to make children's garments for the refugees. One hundred cards listing salvage requirements had been received from Red Cross headquarters and a number of these were distributed. There will be no more meetings until September. Tea was served by the hostess.

An interesting recent visitor to Queen Charlotte was Miss Winnifred Boughton of Winnipeg who spent some time at the Premier Hotel while gathering material for articles on the Islands. The writer expressed her delight at the local scenery and the glorious climate.

Passengers on the southbound Camosun last week were Mrs. S. Pitt Turner and daughter Helen; Mrs. Frank Gale and daughters, Corane and Zona. Mrs. Turner was in charge of two accident victims going south for further hospitalization while Mrs. Gale is taking her daughters to the city for dental treatment.

Masters Freddie and Jimmie Roberts, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roberts, cycled up to the ranch of Mrs. Sybil De Bucy at Lawn Hill and will spend a week's vacation there.

TERRACE

C. J. Norrington arrived by Friday's train to spend a week-end at Terrace. Mr. and Mrs. Norrington are building a residence on Park Avenue.

L. K. Joe, the diminutive Chinaman, who has operated the Montreal Cafe in Terrace for several years, left on last Monday's train to seek fresh fortune elsewhere.

Mrs. Sherwood and Miss Barbara Sherwood returned Friday after spending a short holiday in the south.

The Women's Service Corps here has ceased activities for a short period during these summer weeks and will resume the drills and instruction classes in September. The corps held a picnic Thursday evening to celebrate the holiday. About twenty members went to Anderson Lake on the way to Kalam Lake which was the scene.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR

CANADA'S WARTIME WAGES POLICY PROTECTS BOTH EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES

Higher wages which buy less and less, breed debt and discouragement. Likewise business that expands on inflated dollars collapses like a pricked balloon.

It is in the interests of all citizens that inflation in Canada be checked and for that reason the Government is endeavouring to control price increases, rents, and profits.

Order in Council No. 7440 was designed to assist in effecting this control. It provides for a ceiling on wages and for a cost of living bonus to be paid in addition to basic wages. This bonus rises and falls at the rate of 25 cents per week for every percentage point of rise and fall in the cost of living index, except in the case of juveniles and female workers, receiving less than fifty cents an hour for whom the bonus is one per cent of their basic wage rate.

Why WORKERS Should Support P. C. 7440

Order in Council 7440 puts a ceiling on basic wage rates at a high point. This ceiling protects you against the loss of real income caused by a runaway race between wages and prices.

Corresponding controls on prices of the necessities of life are already being exercised by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, which is striving also to maintain the supply of such necessities in reasonably normal volume.

Canadian workers today have more actual buying power than ever before. Do not be tempted to sacrifice this solid position for the mirage of wartime wage increases—they lead only to debt and discouragement because prices will inevitably keep ahead of wages.

Order 7440 checks this race between wages and prices and by putting the bonus on a flat rate basis favours the lower paid workers.

All workers should support Order 7440. Get a copy of the order and study it. Discuss it with your employer and with your fellow workers.

This is the fairest possible plan for the worker, the employer and the taxpayer that has yet been devised.

Workers and employers are both called upon in the interests of Canada's war effort to observe the Order in both the spirit and the letter. This observance will benefit all Canadians.

Why EMPLOYERS Should Support P. C. 7440

When wages reach the ceiling established by the order then no more increases in basic wage rates can be granted. This ends the "bidding-up" process that is certain to result in an inflationary spiral.

Wars cannot be fought without some rise in the prices of the basic necessities of life. The Wartime Prices and Trade Board is endeavouring to keep these increases within bounds to prevent unjustifiable increases in the cost of the family budget.

The cost of living bonus provided for in P. C. 7440 is designed to take care of such price rises as cannot be avoided.

While the order requires wage adjustments in certain instances, it is believed that it will hold inflation within much narrower bounds than those of the last war.

The order helps to preserve the high morale of workers because they know that all are being treated equally. This removes a cause of labour friction.
