Twenty-Five Years Ago

December 19, 1916.

At the instigation of Ald. G. B. Casey, City Treasurer E. D. Johnston brought down a financial report at the meeting of the city council last night showing that there had been a saving of $64,300 in civic administration this year as compared with last. Mayor M. P. McCaffery explained that he had had nothing to do with the bringing in of the report with which, however, he was much gratified.

The local Eagles Lodge has elected officers for the year as follows: President, O. H. Nelson; vice-president, K. Mackay; chaplain, August Nolte; secretary, C. C. Loop; inner guard, Maurice Garton; treasurer, W. H. Derry; outer guard, Nels Peterson; trustees, Roi Barnes, Ben Self and George Tite.

Pearl Fleming has been relieved of his duties as provincial health officer here.

The winner of the round trip raffle, drawing for which was held by the Queen Mary Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, last night at the Capitol Theatre, was Rance and Hardy with Ticket No. 615. The drawing was in charge of Mrs. D. C. Stuart and D. G. Borland.

FIRST VISIT FROM SANTA

Santa's Should Bring the Youngster Something Useful.

Santa's first visit since the stork's arrival is an event not so much for baby as for proud mother and dad. While the child sleeps the hours away, the parents are considering their greatest gift question. The approach to it should be sensible and practical.

Cradle-day toys should be washable and light enough for tiny fingers. Brightly colored plastic thread, will amuse as well as aid baby with his early teething.

Have you noticed how baby responds to music? He will love making his own rhythm with rattles. And there is a new rhythm stick so he can beat out tones that harmonize with music he hears from the radio. These, too, can be kept germ-free by frequent washing.

Stuffed animals are cuddly and light and teddy bears have always been the most popular. This year you can get any or all of a large bear group—pandas, koalas, honey or polar bears. The dog family is represented, too, with scotties, terriers and spaniels. Many are washable and others can be dry or steam cleaned. The long pile fabrics are fast colored.

Gifts That Wash

For a bit of luxury to add to the baby's wardrobe on Christmas Day, there are matched ensembles in coats and bonnets exquisiteiy embroidered and trimmed with imported lace. Some have detachable china silk linings interlined with pure wool, making them as practical for warm weather as cold.

If it isn't too late for the Christening set, they come with long-pleated coats of silk crepe and full length gowns with matching embroidery and lace. Or you may prefer a pastel silk sacque with lace in drop shoulder effect on the sleeves to wear over the christening dress.
