How to Invest Regularly in War Savings Certificates

By the Payroll Savings Plan

Ask your employer to install the Payroll Savings Plan, which is an arrangement to provide employees with an opportunity to purchase War Savings Certificates regularly, by authorizing their employer to make the necessary deductions from pay. The employer handles the details and Certificates are sent direct from Ottawa

By Bank Pledge

Ask your bank to purchase War Savings Certificates for you every month, automatically, simply by charging your account. All banks have the necessary Pledge Forms. There is no charge for this service.

By Cash, Cheque or Money Order

Your local banks, post offices, and investment dealers are official agencies for the War Savings Committee. You can take your cash, cheque or money order for the purchase of Certificates to them and get an official receipt. Or you may send your remittance direct to the War Savings Committee in Ottawa, by cheque or money order payable to the Receiver General of Canada.

By War Savings Stamps

You can buy 25-cent War Savings Stamps at post offices, banks and many stores and theatres. Attach to the Stamp application card. When you have sixteen Stamps, fill out application and send to the War Savings Committee, Ottawa, or ask your bank or post office to send it for you.
