Proposes Reconfederation

After perusing the verbatim report of the recentil short-lived conference at Ottawa on the Sirois report, H. G. Perry, M.L.A. for Fort George and well known Prince George editor, has come to the conclusion that to try to. fix the blame for the abortive end of the conference "gets" us nowhere." The discussion of who scuttled the confer-. ence is positively causing disunity throughout Canada. Times are much too grave to add fuel to the flames of discord by censuring anyone.

"To secure harmony and concord and to expedite final legislation," Mr. Perry believes that a national constituent assembly composed of all the Parliaments of Canadal should be called to consider ways and means of redefining. the powers of their respective parliaments in the light of necessities of way, considering the experience of the depression, the planning of economic structure after the war, assuring security for the people against want and poverty, re-establishment of defence forces and thoughtful consideration of the recommendations made by the Rowell-Sirois commission.

Such an assembly might be larger in numbers than the! House of Commons is at present, Mr. Perry admits, but it! would not be as large as many political conventions.

Basketball Buzz | SAVOY WINS

Now that the Savoys have returned from Ocean Falls with a mere Defeated Old Empress 11 to 7 Last three-point lead for the Northern British Columbia championship, local fans are wondering about their chances against New Metlakatla visitors on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week. Nor could Bob Houston get leave! from his duties with the Army.

The boys are still talking about their trip to the paper town. Names such as Jack Maughan and Bill Lear are mentioned frequently as the two responsible for the trip but it seems that the whole paper town joined in making things enjoyable for the Prince Rupert fish eaters. Everything was free and the boys were taken on a lengthy tour of the industry which is a rare privilege in these troublous times. A dance on Wednesday night featured the Ocean Falls visit and it proved to be a very entertaining event.

Turning again to the Prince Rupert-New Metlakatla series, local boys, for the first time, have decided to wager on themselves by pooling resources and betting even money that they will take the op-
