Moving Japanese . . .

According to the latest dispatches received in the south from Ottawa between six and seven thousand Japanese are to be moved to highway area this side of Jasper just as soon as accommodation is ready for them on the Jasper-Prince Rupert-Hope-Princeton and North Thompson highways, providing the largest program of construction in the history of western Canada. Conferences have been held between the engineers and it was decided that the camps will be ready for the men on or before March 31. Evidently it is impossible to move the Japs until some accommodation has been provided for them while people here may feel, and justly so, that there has been too much delay in taking action, time is needed to get ready to move a large body of men in this northern climate.

Learn From Chinese . . .

The ambassador to Washington from China, on a visit to Vancouver, urged the united nations not to feel disheartened by a few temporary setbacks but to learn a lesson from China in this regard. China had been at war with Japan for 56 months yet she had unswerving and unfaltering faith in the justice of her cause. The tide had now turned and the faith of the people had been vindicated, but victory was not yet in sight. A long, hard war was still before them but they felt confident of victory. China felt confident that Canada would not fail. It was the first country to send Bren guns and tanks. China had tried to reciprocate by helping save Singapore.

China had had to recruit and train a huge army, an army part of which recently had fought in the same area with Canadians in the Malay Peninsula and it was still doing good work in holding back the Japanese. It had taken a long time to get to this position, so there was no good reason why we should feel badly over a few losses.

Help Goes to Russia . . .

Realizing that the Russian campaign is all-important in this war, even more important than the early defeat of Japan, it seems to be the plan to pour men and material to help defeat the Nazis this spring and also to keep open the Atlantic shipping route. Once the Germans are beaten the ending of the war will be at hand. Russia has already given six million men in this war and we should be able to help at least in providing planes, ships and tanks to the fullest possible extent.

If you have something to sell, a classified advertisement in this paper will soon let you know if there is a buyer in the city.

THINK THIS OVER

Basketball Buzz

The youngsters of the intermediate league have lost no time in arranging their assault on the senior basketball ranks. They have asked for a game tonight and are going to get it.

Bob Houston will be in town from his army duties and at that the oldsters will only have six players on duty. Sonny Stiles is on vacation in the south, and Helge Holkestad is playing intermediate since he takes part in their regular league.

Outside of a check for Angus Macphee the young fellows are by no means weak and they claim Jackie Campbell, a senior of many years standing, will turn out to play centre for them.

The lineups are:

Seniors—Angus Macphee, (captain), Sev Dominato, Gar Taylor, Bob Houston, Sonny Beynon, Art Murray.

Intermediates—Don Fitch, Helge Holkestad, Bob Vucovich, Ted Arney, Shorty Santurbane, Jack Campbell, Bob Long, Alex Bill.

TURNING IN HOOP TIDE

Bo-Me-Hi Scores 66 to 23 Win Over Dry Dock in Intermediate League.

The tide turned in intermediate basketball last night when the Bo-Me-Hi outfit dragged themselves up to first place again by walking all over the Dry Dock in a high-scoring affair. The score was 66 to 23 which more or less indicates the trend of things.

True the shipyard men were minus their two strongholds, Alex Bill and Donald Fitch, yet it was hardly sufficient excuse for the difference of 43 points.

The students were going all out and making their shots count.

This was the first win for the Hi School in six starts and may be the spark to carry them back to their normal game. Incidentally, they were undefeated in the first half of the league only to turn around after winning four straight in the second half and lose five games in a row.

Individual scores:

High School — Santurbane, 14; Arney, 14; Gurvich, 4; Alexander, 2; Postuk, 10; Long, 18; MacDonald, 4. Total, 66.

Dry Dock—Montesano, Sheddon, 9; Pavlikis, 6; Scherk, Vuckovich, 6, Stanton, Pilpea, 2. Total, 23.

MAYBE NOT REAL THING

Secretary of Navy Suggests False Alarm at Los Angeles—Enemy Bases Lower California.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26:—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox is inclined to the belief that the air raid incident in Los Angeles district early yesterday morning was a false alarm. To the best of the knowledge of his department, Knox said, there were no enemy planes over Los Angeles yesterday morning.

A California congressman says that, if the unidentified aircraft were Japanese, they were no doubt based on Lower California where it is also suspected there may be submarine hide-outs.
