Demands Fight On "Parasites"

British Naval Commander Issues Calls For Action Against Offenders

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., April 17 (CP)—An appeal to Britons to take the offensive against "parasites who thrive on illicit dealings" has been issued by Admiral Sir William James, Commander-in-chief at Portsmouth.

"We are fighting in the Far East, in the Middle West, in all the seven seas and we are also fighting in our own country the battle of the people against the parasites," said an order posted throughout the area. "Hardly a day passes without decent men and women being exasperated and infuriated by reports of cases. I do not know why these able bodied men enjoy immunity from serving in the armed forces or the workshops, nor do I know where they get their petrol, but I do know that this battle of the people against the parasites must be won by the people and can be won if the people close up their ranks and take the offensive."

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. John Williams, is due in port at 5:45 this afternoon from Vancouver and waypoints and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return south.

Easter Services At Ocean Falls

Sunrise, Family and Musical Services Featured Occasion In United Church There

OCEAN FALLS, April 17:—Easter Day was observed in the United Church here with three special services, all of which were well attended. There was a sunrise service at 7 a.m., the annual family service later in the morning and a special musical service in the evening. Rev. E. S. Fleming, the pastor, conducted all services.

The sunrise service was a special feature which drew out quite a satisfactory congregation. There were Easter hymns and the pastor told the Easter story. David Priestman sang a solo and gave a brief address.

At the morning family service there was the rite of baptism and a children's program which included vocal solo by Miss Patsy Palmer and trumpet solo by Gordon Martin. Presentation of recognition awards was carried out.

The evening service was featured by the presentation of the sacred cantata "Olivet to Calvary" by Maunder. It was carried out in a striking and effective manner by the choir of the church under the direction of Roy Sawyer with Miss E. S. Simpson at the organ. Soloists assisting included Miss Irene Miller, Mrs. Helen Wilson, Fred Oxenbury, Wilfrid Robertson, Joseph Frew and Milo Foulgner. In addition there were Easter hymns and the reading of the lesson and brief exposition by the minister.
