UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Kitty Cameron Becomes Bride of Sam Currie

Catherine Agnes, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cameron, was united in marriage Thursday evening at a quiet home ceremony to Samuel Montgomery, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Currie, at the home of the bride's parents, 1302 Overlook Street. Rev. Alex MacSween officiated. The ceremony was performed under a white wedding bell in a flower bedecked room before a small gathering of friends.

The bride entered the room on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was attired in a floor length gown of turquoise blue chiffon with silver brocade jacket. Her shoulder length veil was fashioned on Russian lines. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white heather.

Mrs. Peter Cartwright, sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She chose a floor length gown of sky blue silk marquette embroidered with gold sequins. Her head-dress was a veil in matching blue. White carnations were her floral adornment.

The groomsmen's duties were performed by Leading Aircraftman Beatty, R.C.A.F.

Mrs. Sam Currie, wearing a black velvet afternoon frock and corsage of red and white carnations, assisted the bride's mother in receiving the guests. Mrs. Cameron wore a pale rose afternoon frock of crepe with silk lace inserts. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

Following the nuptials, Rev. MacSween proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded. David Taylor proposed the toast to the bride's attendant to which the groomsmen made suitable response. A three-tier wedding cake was duly cut by the bride.

Mrs. E. Beatty, Miss Frances Cumming and Miss Norma Currie acted as servers.

Mr. and Mrs. Currie are a well known and popular local couple. The bride has been identified for the past year with the staff of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. Ltd. The groom is a member of the staff of Gordon's Hardware. They will take up residence at Beach Place.

Canadian Legion Women's Meeting

Considerable Business Transacted At Last Night's Meeting

Last evening the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion was in session at the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. William Rothwell, president, was in the chair with a good attendance of members. Routine business was disposed of.

The report of the fall bazaar was most encouraging, showing substantial financial returns to augment the general funds.

A new member was welcomed and a handsome clock donated by the men of the Legion was gratefully accepted.

A letter concerning the celebration of Remembrance Day in the schools and elsewhere from Provincial Command was read to the members.

Volunteers were asked for to assist the Young Men's Christian Association and United Services Organization.

Members were advised of the Legion Remembrance Day church Parade to the Anglican Church on Sunday morning.

Final arrangements for Poppy Day Saturday were made.

Send Your Copy Early

Local news contributions should be in the Daily News office by 10 a.m. on the day following the event—preferably the night before, a letterbox in the door being there to receive copy. Local news not in by 10 a.m. runs the risk of not being published. We prefer to have news contributions typewritten neatly and double spaced, if possible. However, legible writing will do.

Wear a Poppy

By Winifred O. Brass

Once more we offer you with reverent fingers,
Out of the past whose poignant memory lingers,
The Flanders Poppy;
Ye who pass on with careless, hurrying feet,
Behold her, shining in the city street,
The scarlet Poppy.

Ye, who, exempted, trod the paths of ease,
Forget not those who died to bring you peace.

And wear a Poppy;
Those who endured war's meanness—and its splendor
Unto the end, their very selves to render,
For them—a Poppy.

Because their valor lives throughout the ages,
Because once more the bitter struggle rages,
We bring you Poppies;
Because brave hands, now maimed and bruised and broken
Fashioned anew each scarlet, flaming token,
The little Poppy.

Because she breathes remembrance, faith and sorrow,
Because she whispers hope—a fair tomorrow—
The Flanders Poppy;
Accept her blossom with a tender hand,
And proudly, that the world may understand
O, wear a Poppy!

Sailing Ship Model Raffle

The Prince Rupert Rotary Club at the regular weekly luncheon yesterday, accepted an offer of W. T. Kergin, formerly of the city and now of Vancouver, to give a fine sailing ship model which will be raffled for the city fund. The model is one that has long been on display in Dr. Kergin's local office.

R. M. Winslow was the winner of the weekly war savings raffle for the Queen's Park. A. S. Nickerson was in the lead yesterday in the absence of the president George C. Mitchell.
