Silver Wedding Is Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Dybhavn Honored By Friends at Party on Tuesday Night.

The esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Anton Dybhavn are held by many friends was fully indicated on Tuesday night at the Metropole Hall when a crowd of no less than 125 persons gathered in a party to mark their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. It was on April 7, 1917, that Mr. and Mrs. Dybhavn were married in Borgund, Norway. The greater part of their married life they have spent in Prince Rupert.

Dancing was the order of the evening on Tuesday with Nels Gunderson as master of ceremonies. The hall was tastefully decorated with white and silver streamers in token of the nuptial theme.

The feature of the proceedings occurred during the supper hour when the presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. Dybhavn, on behalf of the guests assembled, of a handsome five-piece silver tea service. The presentation was made by Capt. Dan Larsen and the bride and groom of a quarter of a century ago both responded appropriately. Other friends made remarks suitable to the occasion.

Peter Lien played wedding music during the evening and there were solos by the Varden Singers.
