Not More Than Twenty Halibut Boats
 Still Out — Steamship Service Resuming—New Cannery Here

With a week elapsed since the closing fishing date of the 1942 season, not more than twenty halibut vessels are still being awaited from the final trips of the season and it is anticipated the ensuing week would see the most of these safely in. The sole remaining Prince Rupert boats to be accounted for are the Lois N., Capt. Ben Peterson, and Sea Maid, Capt. Henry Dairon. Up to and including yesterday halibut landings at Prince Rupert for the present season had reached a total of 16,822,719 pounds as compared with 15,556,000 pounds last year at the same date. The American landings this year are 12,758,800 pounds as against 9,903,900 pounds last year while the 1942 Canadian total is 4,063,919 pounds as against 5,656,100 pounds a year ago. During the past week no Canadian halibut was landed while American vessels brought in 574,500 pounds. Prices during the week ranged from 14c and 13c paid the Lindy for 57,000 pounds to 18c and 13c which the Oceanic and Tatoosh received for 15,500 and 21,000 pounds respectively.

Twice a week service by Canadian National Steamships between Vancouver and Prince Rupert is about to be resumed following a brief interruption owing to one of the vessels having met with a mishap, it is officially announced.

Possibly obscured in view of so many other undertakings which are proceeding along the Prince Rupert waterfront is a new cannery for herring and other fish which is to be erected at Seal Cove by the Francis Millard Co. Announcement was made this week of the issuance of a $16,900 building permit. A site just west of McLean's boat yard which has been used in the past by other fishery projects is the location.

Capt. J. E. Noel and Capt. A. Sinclair, well known coast pilots, arrived last night from Vancouver.

Capt. Lorne Goodfrey, who has been in command of the steamer Lady Cecilia on the Vancouver-Powell River run, is relieving Capt. John Boden as master of the steamer Catala.

Anchovies Further North
 Due probably to the generally warm weather conditions which prevailed, anchovies were seen in substantial numbers further north than usual on the British Columbia coast this summer, according to reports brought in by Prince Rupert fishermen. All up and down Douglas Channel, less than one hundred miles south of Prince Rupert, there were large numbers of them. They even became a nuisance by getting tangled up in the coho salmon nets outside of Princess Royal Island. With characteristics like a miniature herring and about six inches long, the anchovy's usual habitat is off

FILM HERE

With Kay Kyser, the popular orchestra leader comedian in the stellar role as a secret service agent and a bridegroom at the same time, the hilarious musical comedy "My Favorite Spy" comes as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here next Monday and Tuesday.

On his wedding day Kyser, leading his orchestra at a fashionable night club in New York City, is drafted into service and, after some hectic adventures is assigned to counter-espionage work, helping to run down a group of enemy agents using the night club as a rendezvous. He is forbidden to tell anyone, even his bride, what he is doing and so his domestic bliss fades as his wife finds him running around with an attractive blonde. Her jealousy leads to serious consequences but, eventually, Kyser saves himself from the spy ring and proves himself a hero as he captures the gang intact, thus bringing the piece to an hilarious climax.

Ellen Drew, as the wife, and Jane Wyman, as the blonde, head the featured cast which also includes Robert Armstrong, Helen Westley, William Demarest, Una O'Connor.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.
 By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

The Searchlights Auxiliary ceased functioning the other day and, as they had a good supply of sugar and tea on hand, strictly from pre-rationing times, they gave it to be used for the tea hour at the fortnightly Y's wives' whist drives. It was a grand gift and, if the rationing board jumps on us, well they're just old meanies, that's all.

There are times when this job of hostessing almost gets too much for me and black discouragement grins evilly at me. It was so last night. I had one of my sailor lads placed, or thought I did, in what up until now had been a closed home, as it were. I had sent the boy up as a last resort to storm a the lady's heart. He was able and I was certain she would be able to resist giving him a room was his and he was in his gear in the morning and asked him how he had done. He didn't. He had telephoned him in the morning to say that she would be able to move the books, etc. from the room so she let him have it. Not nearly almost discouraged but the right angry.

The Grenadiers are planning company dance for some time and are calling on hostesses. I will let you know details when I get them.

Welcome to our new! A supervisor, George Borden. First there was son, then Ivan Miller and George. They get good and good-looking, I mean what I mean. Audrey up until now had been a closed home, as it were. I had sent the boy up as a last resort to storm a tender.

CANADA'S HOUSEWIVES ATTENTION!

You've been asking for more and more Crown Brand Syrup. We're doing our best to supply you! But:—

If at any time your grocer cannot give you the "Crown Brand" Syrup you need ... we want you to know the reason.
HERE IT IS:—

In addition to its other uses, Crown Brand Syrup is being used in Canadian homes to supplement the supply of sugar. We are producing a great deal more corn syrup, but it is difficult to meet the demand resulting from a war shortage of millions of pounds of sugar.

The supply of "Crown Brand", like other things, must be shared. Don't hoard ... buy normally. We are making every effort ... and your grocer will do his best to fill your needs.
