MARRIAGE IN CHURCH

Pretty and Interesting Nuptials of Miss Joy Green and Gordon Crane

Decorated with early summer flowers, First United Church was the scene of one of the loveliest weddings of the season last evening when Joy Bernice, eldest daughter of Captain and the late Mrs. Reg. Green, became the bride of Gordon Crane, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crane of Vancouver. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. D. Clarke.

Entering the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Swana Olafson, the bride was an exquisite picture in a gown of white marquisette bouffant style, with three-quarter length matching veil. Her bouquet and spray holding her veil in place were of rapture red roses. A necklace of amethysts and pearls, the gift of the groom, was her sole ornament.

The bride's two sisters, Helen and Audrey, were her attendants, charmingly gowned in blue and rose marquisette, with shoulder length veils, and carrying colonial bouquets in pastel shades.

The groom was attended by Ken Harding.

Ushers were Ned Tobey and Raymond Fisk.

During the signing of the register, the hymn "O Perfect Love," was beautifully rendered by the church choir.

The tastefully decorated rooms of the bride's home were a fitting background for the quiet reception which followed the ceremony. Receiving the guests were the bride's father and Mrs. T. Petroff. The bride and groom received the good wishes of their guests under a wedding bell and pink and white streamers. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Clark and fittingly responded to by the groom. Sid Hamblin made a toast to the bridesmaids which was replied to by the groomsman.

A lovely two-tier wedding cake, flanked by tall pink tapers, centred the bride's table. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. P. T. Cousins and Mrs. James Krikevsky. The Misses Anne Petersen, Pheme Finley and June Beattie were serviteurs.

The happy couple left later for a two weeks' honeymoon in Vancouver and Victoria. On their return they will take up residence on Ninth Avenue East.

The bride was born in Prince Rupert and has lived here all her life. She has a host of well wishing friends. The groom is a member of the staff of the fish oil plant of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association, having lived here for the past two years. He has many friends in Kamloops and Vancouver where he formerly resided.
